

School and Trust Information published on a website

Introduction

The current model funding agreement requires academies to publish the same information on their website as maintained schools.

The Education Fellowship funding agreement outlines specific requirements regarding online publishing of information including:

- Publication of Key Stage 2 test results
- Publication of GCSE results
- Latest Ofsted reports
- Information on performance data

School Information Regulations

All Education Fellowship schools shall comply with the requirements of the School Information Regulations 2012, which set out the information that schools must publish online.

The Education Fellowship schools will publish on their website:

- Pupil premium allocation, use and impact
- Curriculum provision, content and approach
- Admissions arrangements
- Policies on behaviour, charging and special education needs (SEN) and disability provision
- Ofsted reports and Department for Education (DfE) performance data
- Achievement and attainment performance data
- The school's statement of ethos and values
- Behaviour policy
- Complaints policy
- Exclusion arrangements
- Equality objectives
- SEND report
- Year 7 literacy and numeracy catch up premium (if applicable)

Primary schools' websites must also detail how they have spent, or will spend, their PE and sports grant:

Trust Accounts

The Education Fellowship will publish its accounts in full on its website. To maximise transparency and openness, this will be done as soon as possible after the accounts are signed, but no later than 31 January 2015.

The Education Fellowship will retain accounts in respect of at least the previous two years on its website.

The audited accounts will comprise:

- a trustees' report – signed by a trustee (usually the chair);
- a governance statement – signed by both a trustee (usually the chair) and the accounting officer;
- a statement on regularity propriety & compliance – signed by the accounting officer;
- a statement of trustees' responsibilities – signed by a trustee (usually the chair);
- an independent auditor's report on the financial statements – signed by the auditor;
- an independent reporting accountant's report on regularity – signed by a reporting accountant, who must be the same person as the external auditor of the financial statements;
- a set of financial statements and supporting notes – including a balance sheet signed by a trustee (usually the chair);

The accounts will also include a copy of the auditor's management letter covering:

- the auditor's approach to the audit;
- the areas covered by the audit;
- the auditor's findings, including any significant concerns, if arising including ratings of the importance/risk, e.g. high/medium/low;
- any audit recommendations for the period;
- the trust's response to the auditor's recommendations including timescale for action;
- the status of any audit recommendations from the previous year

In addition to the above, The Education Fellowship will also publish its:

- Annual reports
- Current memorandum of association
- Articles of association
- Funding agreement
- Charity trustees' and members' names
- The Education Fellowship value for money statements will also be published online.

Admissions Policy

The Education Fellowship, as an Admissions authority, will publish information about how to appeal on The Education Fellowship website. This is a statutory requirement (Feb 2016).

Funding Agreements

From September 2014 academies must publish their funding agreement on their website.

This policy shall be subject to yearly review.
